KILLED WHILE DRIVING TO MEET HER DAUGHTER.

Dragged From Her Carriage and Assaulted-Her Head Crushed With a Stone -A "Trusty" Convict Arrested.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 24.-Mrs. Nancy Jane Folsom was murdered yesterday in the town of Boscawen, a sparsely settled farming community fifteen miles from this city. She was the wife of an industrious farmer. While driving from her home to the railroad station two miles away, to meet her daughter returning from a school this city, she was waylaid, dragged from her carriage, assaulted and murdered and left among the roadside bushes.

The daughter attends a business school in this city and for several weeks the mother has taken her to the station in the morning and met her again at night. The road from the Folsom home to the station is almost as wild as any in New Hampshire. There is not a house to break the loneliness of the drive So dense is the foliage that it forms an archway over head for nearly the entire distance and has caused this

Mrs. Folsom was waylaid about half way from her home to the station. Her head was crushed in with a conical stone, which found near the scene, and was covwas found near the scene, and was covered with blood. An inmate of the county house of correction, this institution being about a mile from the scene of the tragedy, has been placed under arrest. He is George Greenleaf, under a years' sentence for attempted rape. At the county institution, where most of the inmates are required to work, Greenleaf, who has only one arm, had light work. One of his duties was to drive the cows to pasture, taking

SALE OF BROKAW'S DOGS. Good Average Prices for His Pointers and Setters at Auction.

A total of $2,360 was received at auction in the American Horse Exchange yesterday for thirty-two pointers and setters from W. Gould Brokaw's Fairview Kennels, High-point, N C. On the list were the noted bench show winners in the West and East, Sir Wal-ter and Shotaway, with a number of other dogs nearly as renowned on the show cir-cuits. Neither of the two brought anything like his value, in the estimation of the ring-side critics, yet in general the sale was regarded as far ahead of the usual auction sale of dogs in this city, for as a rule the fanciers of fine dogs are not quick bidders at public sales. All the dogs had good repu tations in the field, except two that had jus been broken and were practically untried, and the support given to the auctioneer giving Day. Corbett at first wanted some one else to referee, but Crowley said that as Charlie White was the official referee of the organization, he would insist upon him acting. After a little persuasion Corbett gave in.

There was also a kick against the weight. Corbett wishing to tip the scale a few pounds in excess of Terry Crowley would not agree and Corbett was compelled to tield. Both puglists have deposited $500 each as a forfeit. The winner is to take 65 per cent and the loser 35 per cent of the gate receipts. An additional $500 has also been deposited by each man as a guarantee that neither will indulge in any other fight before their meeting. Bandages are to be worn, but the material must be of the soft kind.

This is Young Corbett's first visit to the East and judging from his appearance yeaterday, he is the most likely man that McGovern has contracted to meet. After a brief stay in town he left for Hartford in company with his brother and Growley, where he will train. They will e se at the else. Crowley says that the men must be in the ring at 4 o'cleck in the afternoon Danny Dougherty and Terry Lee will take care of McGovern's training.

AUTOMOBILE RACES. Objections Made to Time Tests for Long Island Championship.

made concerning the choice of the Long Island Automobile Club in having its races on the Cone; Island Boulevard run in the form of time trials rather than as contests. The races are to be run on Nov 16. The distance for all classes is to be one mile, and only those who traverse the mile in 1 minute 3) seconds or better will be eligible to compete for the championship of Long Island. The idea, as at present set forth, is to have the machines run one at a time and their run accurately timed. In case several machines of the same class do better than I minute 33 seconds same class do better than I minute 30 seconds only the fastest will be eligible for the final or championship competition.

This will cause a long-thuwn-out and tedious programme. It is one that lacks the essential of sport, which is frank competition. The Boulevard in Brooklyn is wide enough for four vehicles to be started abreast. Even if the committee desires to make the test by timing each one, there is no reason why at least two should not be slarted at the same time. It was ably argued yesterday by a prominent automobilist that a man magit make good time running over the course, but was apit to make better time if he saw the man who started with him catching up or forging ahead. It certainly would be more attractive as a spectacle if the machines were sent off in semblance of a race, and as the use of the public highway has been granted for the competition, the public naturally should be considered.

NEW RECORD FOR CRESCRUS. | TEAMS FOR INTERCITY GOLF. King of Trotters Lowers His Own B

Kansas City. Oct. 24 — Cresceus, king of trotters, broke the mile record for a half-mile track this afternoon at the Kansas City Driving Club's park, going the distance in 2.00% and clipping one-quarter of a second off the best previous mark, made by himself at Toledo two weeks ago. He made the new record in his first trial. The time by quarters was: 32%, 104%, 136%, 200%. At 3 o'clock Ketcham brought his great horse out. He warmed him up with a jog of a mile and then Mike the Tramp, the sunning horse, went up to the head of the stretch with him and the scoring commenced. The fourth time Ketcham nodded for the word. The runner had the pole at the start, but Cresceus usurped that position at the first turn and at the quarthat position at the first turn and at the quarter, which was made in 32%, he was in the lead. Every few strides Tim Murnane would take the runner up and yell to spur the troiting wonder on. As they turned into the stretch the first time around the hundreds of watches in the crowd showed that he was going at a record-breaking pace and as they passed under the half-mile wire in 104%, a 200 clip, onlookers burst into cheers. Murnane kept up his tactics of pulling up the running mate and shouting at Cresceus. The three-quarter pole was passed in 136%. As they reached the head of the stretch Ketcham was seen to call upon his horse for the final effort. Ketcham did not touch Cresceus with the whip, but urged him on with words of encouragement. He passed under the wire a few lengths in advance of Mike the Tramp, and hundreds of the spectators caught the time as 2 20%, just as the official timers did. The hanging up of the Mike the Tramp, and hundreds of the spectators caught the time as 200½, just as the official timers did. The hanging up of the numbers was the signal for a tremendous cutourst from the spectators. They swarmed to the track and it was all that Ketcham, the owner and driver, could do to keep them from pulling him out of the suiky. They crowded around Cresceus and hundreds of hands were cutstretched to pat him. About 15,000 persons had gathered to see the trial
